

CELEBRATING
★ OUR ★
12TH YEAR

★ THE ★
TEXAS
CONFERENCE FOR WOMEN

HOSTED BY THE FIRST LADY OF TEXAS ANITA PERRY

HOUSTON GEORGE R BROWN CONVENTION CENTER

NOV172011

Hosted by First Lady Anita Perry, the 12th Annual Conference will include inspirational keynote speakers, skill-building breakout sessions and ample opportunities to develop new relationships with other women leaders. With sessions ranging from personal finance to health and wellness to career advancement, this unique event offers something for everyone.

What's the ROI ?

Attendees will find information and motivation to thrive in any circumstance. You will:

- Connect and network with 6,000 women from across Texas
- Learn skills and tools from both nationally recognized speakers and Texas leaders
- Build an unparalleled professional network

Conference features:

- Inspirational keynote speakers
- Skill-building workshops
- Practical tips from expert panels
- Resume critiquing
- Mentor match
- Exhibit hall with vendors and service providers of interest to all women

Attendees will learn how to:

- Lead people and organizations to success
- Deal with change
- Communicate effectively
- Take control of your finances
- Manage your personal health and stress
- Balance work/life demands
- And much more!

Who should attend?

- Corporate, government, and healthcare professionals
- Non-profit employees
- Community leaders
- Entrepreneurs and self-employed women
- Students

Visit us for more details at TXConferenceForWomen.org